Respected Sir,

Sub : Celebration 150 Years of Mahatma Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi and Presentation of GANDHI - SATYAGRAHA AWARD on Monday 20th January, 2020 from 4.00 p.m. in Sarat Sadan Hall-2, Howrah.

To pay rich tributes to the Mahatma Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi, the Father of the Nation, on the 150th Birth-Year, Gandhi : 150 Years Celebration Committee is holding a SYMPOSIUM on "Life and Works of Mahatma Gandhi" on Monday 20th January 2020 in Sarat Sadan Hall - 2 from 4.00 p.m.

Gandhiji lived and died for his belief in Ahimsa (Nonviolence) and Satyagraha (Truth & Fearlessness). It is high time that the younger generations are educated and informed in the correct perspective about the dire need of the Gandhian values to fight against the wrongs and uphold the unity of the country.

To mark the occasion GANDHI SATYAGRAHA Award in memory of Gandhiji will be presented. And, therefore, Gandhi : 150 Years Celebration Committee invites from the students under 3 categories on the theme "Gandhi and Gandhian Values"

- 1) Essay writing 400-500 words
- 2) Painting on canvas size A4
- 3) Elocution 4-5 minutes

In view of the above, we pray to your magnanimity kindly to help us with the said programme encouraging the students to send their entries along with bio-data and a copy of the recent photograph for this Award.

The entries should reach us latest by Wednesday 8th January 2020.

The Award winning entries will be published in the souvenir of the programme.

Thanking you,

with regards

Hasan Reza

“It is not nationalism that is evil,
It is the narrowness, selfishness, exclusiveness which is the bane of modern nations.”

“All reforms owe their origin to the initiation

“Religions are not meant for separating men
They are meant to bind them”

“Violence flourishes on response, either by submission to the will of the violator, or, by counter violence.
Truth and Non-Violence are my God.”

but not enough for everyone’s greed”
