1. PROFILE OF THE AFFILIATED COLLEGE

A. Preface

Prabhu Jagatbandhu College, popularly known as Andul College, is situated on the banks of river Saraswati. Nearly five decades ago on 15.08.1964 this college was formed by several education conscious people who belonged to culturally rich localities of Jhorehat, Andul and Mouri. This college has been named after Prabhu Jagatbandhu, a saint in the true sense of the term. One of His devotees, Dr. Tinkari Ghosh, gifted his land and property to initiate the college.

The dream of establishing a higher education centre could not have culminated into reality but for the voluntary donation by the education loving people of the locality. Funds were also raised by the untiring and selfless efforts by a benevolent group under the name of 'Karmi Sangha'. Later on the Science Building was constructed with the money and materials donated by generous contribution of Sri Surath Mohan Paul of N. C. Paul (Bricks) Pvt. Ltd. A trust deed between N.C. Paul (Bricks) Pvt. Ltd. and the college formed a perennial source of income for the college.

With the advent of time, the Institution has surged ahead with flying colours, trying its utmost to overcome disabilities and show results in the assigned tasks. This in itself is a daunting task in as much as it depends not just on the multiplicity of the programmes but on the quest for perfection in terms of curriculum, discipline, teaching methods, evaluation system, academic integrity, social responsibility and a sense of commitment to abiding human values. Our motto is directed towards empowering of the lesser privileged social groups such as the tribal, backward classes, minorities, women and other vulnerable sections of the society.

The vision of our college is to energize the human capital of the hinterland of the college by setting new standards for excellence, access and stewardship for a new era. Teaching is a noble activity and involves a great deal of sacrifice. Our goal is to produce enlightened citizens who will boldly lead India to her rightful place in the global family, based on the ancient wisdom of her past, her all round innovative superiority of the present, assuring a glorious future of harmony. To realize the vision of our college we are committed to provide an academically rich, multicultural learning experience that prepares all its students to realize their goals, pursue meaningful lifework, and to be socially responsible contributors to their communities, locally and globally. Curricular planning and implementation through college prospectus and official website of the college reaches out to the students, staff and other stakeholders. However, we firmly believe that the best indicators of progress are honest self-evaluation, reviewing activities of oneself which leads to a conducive environment for growth.

B. SWOC Analysis of the Institution

Strength:

Highly qualified and dedicated faculty members

Persevering office staff for smooth functioning of college activities

Well-behaved and obedient students

Cordial relationship among 3 wings - teaching, non-teaching and students

Active governing body

Central and departmental libraries with adequate and updated resources

Well equipped laboratories

Weakness:

There is not sufficient land for building extension

Although requirement is there, hostel for boys and girls have not yet been constructed

Insufficient rooms for extension of other faculties

There is no full-fledged Bio-Science wing

High drop-out rate especially in Science

Opportunities:

The college is in its Golden Jubilee Year, so we aspire for a substantial building grant to be utilised for building extension purposes

College is well connected by road as well as railways

On-line admission gives the College a bigger opportunity to serve a bigger hinterland

Plans for expansion of Bio-science wing, introduction of B.Ed . section, P.G. Section

Challenges:

Many students are first generation learners, to boost them financially and psychologically

Developing communication skills in English for students who are comfortable only in vernacular

Insufficient fund and staff shortage results in poor infrastructure and service quality of the Department. Keeping pressing demands of the hinterland, opening of PG and B. Ed courses

Student placement through campus recruitment

The admission committee holds regular meetings to render transparency to the admission process. Student counseling is done at the time of admission and student database is obtained thereafter. In addition to this, some departments organize regular mid- term counseling sessions for the benefit of the weaker students.

2.1.5 Reflecting on the strategies adopted to increase/improve access for following categories of students, enumerate on how the admission policy of the institution and its student profiles demonstrate/reflect the National commitment to diversity and inclusion

- * SC/ST
- * OBC
- * Women
- * Differently abled
- * Economically weaker sections
- * Minority community
- * Any other

The Institution adheres to the Government norms to ensure maximum inclusion of students. For this 22 percent of the seats are reserved for the Scheduled Caste (SC) Category and 7 percent of the seats are reserved for Scheduled Tribe (ST) Categories and two percent is reserved for differently abled students. The college provides scholarships in the form of “half-free ship” and “full-free ship” to economically weaker students

2.1.6 Provide the following details for various programmes offered by the institution during the last four years and comment on the trends. i.e. reasons for increase / decrease and actions initiated for improvement.

An analysis of the data for four year period given below shows:

There has been a steady demand ratio in the B.A honours courses which is slightly fluctuating from 1:4 to 1:5.3.

Demand ratio in the B. Sc. honours courses varies from 1:0.3 to 1:3.54 which can be considered to be a positive sign.

Demand ratio in the B.A general courses is steady, which is slightly fluctuating from 1:1.2 to 1:1.6.

Demand ratio in the B. Sc. general courses varies from 1:0.29 to 1:3.38, which can be also considered as significantly increasing trend.

Demand ratio in the B. Com (H+G) courses is steady and good, which is slightly fluctuating from 1:3.01 to 1:3.22.

Overall 1236 candidates have been admitted out of 2073 applications in current year, thus the average demand ratio is 1:1.6 for the whole institution.

The demand ratio varies from approximately 1:3 to 1:5 for B.A. Honours, B. Sc Honours and General and also for B.Com Honours and General. The average demand ratio falls to approximately 1:2, because college tries to admit every B.A. General applicant satisfying University norms as there is no seat limit.

2.2 Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 How does the institution cater to the needs of differently-abled students and ensure adherence to government policies in this regard?

Due to paucity of funds the institution has not yet been able to make any special provision for the differently-abled students apart from the fact that one percent seats have been reserved for them. The college authority recognizes the need to make significant progress in this regard.

2.2.2 Does the institution assess the students' needs in terms of knowledge and skills before the commencement of the programme? If 'yes', give details on the process.

Before the commencement of the academic programme the college organizes counseling sessions with the students at the time of admission. Each and every department acquires data from the candidate, where details of the student including socio-economic profile, proficiency in any particular field is noted down.

The counseling form handed out during admission process is as follows:

2.2.3 What are the strategies adopted by the institution to bridge the knowledge gap of the enrolled students (Bridge/Remedial/ Add-on/Enrichment Courses, etc.) to enable them to cope with the programme of their choice?

Remedial classes are regularly held with all the students. Special attention is given to those coming from poorer socio economic groups- SC, ST, OBC and slow learners who are lagging behind to get them back to mainstream. Enrichment courses as "Entry in services" are also conducted with interested students.

2.2.4 How does the college sensitize its staff and students on issues such as gender, inclusion, environment etc.?

The College conducts interdisciplinary courses on the Environmental studies as a part of the curriculum for every final year students. This also includes a compulsory project work. Women's cell of the College is very active on gender harassment issues and organizes various related workshops. The students' aid fund gives financial aid to the economically backward students.

2.2.5 How does the institution identify and respond to special educational/learning needs of advanced learners?

The college has a well equipped central library with internet facility to which the advanced learners can have easy access. Apart from this, most departments have their own library from where students are allowed to borrow text/reference books. Faculty is always ready to interact with students seeking help during their off periods.

2.2.6 How does the institute collect, analyze and use the data and information on the academic performance (through the programme duration) of the students at risk of drop out (students from the disadvantaged sections of society, physically challenged, slow learners, economically weaker sections etc. who may discontinue their studies if some sort of support is not provided)?

Most Departments maintain a student profile. So that if it is so required, a student requires financial assistance, it can quickly come to the notice of the faculty. Sometimes, a guardian call may be done if there is some threat of a student discontinuing his/her studies on account of financial crunch.

2.3 Teaching-Learning Process

2.3.1 How does the college plan and organize the teaching, learning and evaluation schedules? (Academic calendar, teaching plan, evaluation blue print, etc.)

Academic calendar is prepared by the college keeping in mind the guidelines given by the University of Calcutta. The academic calendar gives detail information to the students, teachers and guardians informing them tentative dates of commencement of classes, date of mid-term and test examinations, sports, cultural programme, NSS activities etc.

Teaching Plan – All Departments prepare their teaching plan following the syllabus given by the University of Calcutta. Modules are made by the faculty so that syllabus can be smoothly covered within the stipulated time available each academic year. This is distributed at the commencement of the academic session so that students' are aware of the course structure well in advance.

Evaluation blue print – Tentative dates of mid-term Exam and Test Exam are given in the Prospectus which is distributed at the time of admission so that students have a clear idea about the examination schedule. The final schedule however is fixed by the academic committee of the college. The results of the college examination are submitted to the academic committee who take necessary steps to upgrade the students. Guardians are informed in case of poor performance by the students.

2.3.2 How does IQAC contribute to improve the teaching –learning process?

The IQAC functions as an overall advisory body operating constantly for the betterment of the teaching learning process. The IQAC meetings often result in the emergence of new ideas which help invigorate teaching methods. IQAC serves notices regarding effective teaching plans, modules maintained by the department and regular departmental meetings to be held for a holistic improvement of the academic environment. Not only this, feedbacks from students are obtained from time to time to ensure the best quality of teaching. In fact the IQAC acts as a guide and moral boost to all the new ventures that the faculty members conceptualize for their students.

2.3.3 How is learning made more student-centric? Give details on the support structures and systems available for teachers to develop skills like interactive learning, collaborative learning and independent learning among the students?

College provides well equipped technical supports to the teachers to develop skills. We have five computer labs having about fifty computers alongwith sufficient number of printers, scanners etc. We also have LCD projectors for lecture demonstrations, seminars, etc. When there are a large number of candidates we use microphones. Students can access the internet facilities of the department under the supervision of the departmental teachers.

Our college has enrolled in the N-list site provided by the UGC. Both faculty and students are largely benefitted from this access.

2.3.4 How does the institution nurture critical thinking, creativity and scientific temper among the students to transform them into life-long learners and innovators?

Various departments have a wide number of activities which focuses on the holistic growth of the students. The students of the commerce department are ably guided by the faculty in their project work which trains them for critical thinking and also nurtures creativity. Other departments like Bengali, Political Science, Philosophy, Economics, Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics organize some annual programme where active participation of students as well as the faculty is involved. Some departments like Chemistry, Philosophy, Bengali, History organize academic tours to relevant places so that the students get a wider exposure which would help them in their quest for knowledge apart from the curriculum being followed.

2.3.5 What are the technologies and facilities available and used by the faculty for effective teaching? Eg: Virtual laboratories, e-learning - resources from National Programme on Technology Enhanced Learning (NPTEL) and National Mission on Education through Information and Communication Technology (NME-ICT), open educational resources, mobile education, etc.

The College provides internet facilities to all the Departments and thereby the scope to access international journals and books through N-list, INFLIBNET etc. provided by the UGC. The students are given open access facility in the central library.

2.3.6 How are the students and faculty exposed to advanced level of knowledge and skills (blended learning, expert lectures, seminars, workshops etc.)?

College organizes seminars from time to time. This includes UGC sponsored seminars, inter departmental seminars, departmental seminars where external resource persons are invited to enhance the knowledge of the faculty and students. This is mainly done in compliance with the seminar committee. Not only this, faculty is allowed to participate/ attend seminars so that the college is enriched from their outcome.

2.3.7 Detail (process and the number of students \benefitted) on the academic, personal and psycho-social support and guidance services (professional counseling/mentoring/academic advise) provided to students?

Each Department counsels the students at the time of admission to guide them about the prospect of the subject. The candidates' aptitude as well as the eligibility for the subject is also discussed. College authority organizes mid-term counseling based on the results of the mid-term examinations. A student can always approach a teacher for academic help beyond class hours. Often teachers help needy students by lending specimen copies which are handed over to them by various publishing houses. The departmental teachers also guide the outgoing students in choosing their subjects for further studies.

2.3.8 Provide details of innovative teaching approaches/methods adopted by the faculty during the last four years? What are the efforts made by the institution to encourage the faculty to adopt new and innovative approaches and the impact of such innovative practices on student learning?

The Institute allows the faculties to join different courses/workshop to update themselves. Some departments have started to use different computational technique, package, programme which are helpful to students in completing projects. For larger classrooms where the number of students are also large, microphones are given to teachers for better audibility. Apart from this, the college has LCD and LED which is used particularly during departmental programmes or on occasion when there are internal seminars.

2.3.9 How are library resources used to augment the teaching- learning process?

Library provides open access facility to all students. As most of the students of our college come from economically backward class, our library with a rich collection of books proves to be very essential to the students. Teachers and students have separate reading rooms. Teachers have access to Open Book Resource through INFLIBNET. Most Departments have Departmental Libraries which is utilised by the students. Teachers also provide reading materials from online sources like e-books and journals.

2.3.10 Does the institution face any challenges in completing the curriculum within the planned time frame and calendar? If 'yes', elaborate on the challenges encountered and the institutional approaches to overcome these.

The institution sometimes faces challenges in completing the curriculum within the planned time frame and calendar. This is mainly due to the shortage of faculty as a number of sanctioned posts have not yet been filled up. However, teachers earnestly try to complete the syllabus either by taking extra classes or tutorial classes. The College also provides guest lecturers to supplement the deficit of teachers.

2.3.11 How does the institute monitor and evaluate the quality of teaching learning?

The Institution arranges for Mid-term Tests and Annual Examination. Teachers evaluate the papers and students are shown how they have performed. Apart from this, student feedback is taken time to time. Academic sub-committee meetings are held to address the challenges faced by the students during the completion of the curriculum.

2.4 Teacher Quality

2.4.2 How does the institution cope with the growing demand/ scarcity of qualified senior faculty to teach new programmes/ modern areas (emerging areas) of study being introduced (Biotechnology, IT, Bioinformatics etc.)? Provide details on the efforts made by the institution in this direction and the outcome during the last three years.

The college depends on the state College Service Commission to employ persons of repute with domain expertise in substantive posts. For immediate needs, college recruits experienced retired teachers as well as younger trained faculty to meet up with the demands of curriculum. Apart from this, faculty members are encouraged to attend seminars/workshops regularly to update knowledge and skills in emerging areas.

2.4.3 Providing details on staff development programmes during the last four years elaborate on the strategies adopted by the institution in enhancing the teacher quality.

Staff development programmes are not organized by the institution itself. The institution encourages the faculty members to join the workshop organized by university and other research institution where they get sufficient exposure in handling new curriculum, using enriched materials, audio-visual aids etc for improved teaching learning. The institution grants leaves to the faculty members who join the Refresher and Orientation courses organized by the Academic Staff College working under different Universities. 2.4.4 What policies/systems are in place to recharge teachers? (eg: providing research grants, study leave, support for research and academic publications teaching experience in other national institutions and specialized programmes industrial engagement etc.)

In our institution there is no scope for providing research grants to the faculty members. But the authority always encourages the research activities of the teachers and accordingly grants study leave and provides support for research and academic publications. The authority grants leave for paper presentation both within the country and outside.

2.4.5 Give the number of faculty who received awards / recognition at the state, national and international level for excellence in teaching during the last four years. Enunciate how the institutional culture and environment contributed to such performance/achievement of the faculty.

No such award was received by any of our faculty during the last four years.

2.4.6 Has the institution introduced evaluation of teachers by the students and external Peers? If yes, how is the evaluation used for improving the quality of the teaching-learning process?

A student feedback is taken from time to time. Departmental heads are handed over such feedback forms. Departmental meetings then ensue to resolve any problems in general.

2.5 Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 How does the institution ensure that the stakeholders of the institution especially students and faculty are aware of the evaluation processes?

The academic calendar published in the prospectus at the beginning of each academic session ensures that the stakeholders of the institution especially students, parents and faculty members are aware of the evaluation processes.

2.5.2 What are the major evaluation reforms of the university that the institution has adopted and what are the reforms initiated by the institution on its own?

Mid-term exam and pre-final test are the major evaluation reforms of the university that the institution has adopted. The college introduces class tests, tutorials, class discussion, student seminars etc., on its own to evaluate the progress of the students.

Keeping in compliance with the University reforms the College has implemented the following :

- Supplementary examinations are held as per schedule
- Student can reappear for examination without discontinuing three year degree curriculum thereby avoiding year loss
- College serves as the home centre for all students appearing for Compulsory Bengali, English and Environmental Sciences Examinations

2.5.3 How does the institution ensure effective implementation of the evaluation reforms of the university and those initiated by the institution on its own?

If a student fails to appear in mid-term exam or pre-final test he/she has to produce proof of his/her absence to the academic committee and a guardian call is made. If a student fails to appear for class test consecutively guardians are informed and necessary steps are taken.

2.5.4 Provide details on the formative and summative assessment approaches adopted to measure student achievement. Cite a few examples which have positively impacted the system.

Their achievements are measured by class test, class discussion, seminars and debates as well as by their creative writings in wall magazines.

The college has authorised faculty members of Department of English to train the weaker students in spoken English which will serve a basic requirement to develop communicative skill, writing skill, language skill of the students.

2.5.5 Detail on the significant improvements made in ensuring rigor and transparency in the internal assessment during the last four years and weightages assigned for the overall development of students (weightage for behavioral aspects, independent learning, communication skills etc.

The Institution strictly adheres to the norms given by the University of Calcutta. There is no scope for any internal assessment by the College.

2.5.6 What are the graduate attributes specified by the college/ affiliating university? How does the college ensure the attainment of these by the students?

In today's world of Globalization and modernization particularly in mass communication and information technology, we have opened new departments: – Computer Science and Electronics. Since technology has advanced and come up a long way in the past few years, we found it utmost essential to open up courses in these two areas. The ready access to computers and relevant course matter will benefit students in their future job search. We all know that a student can never develop his mental and physical aptitudes unless and until he or she has enough physical fitness. Keeping in mind the usefulness of this particular area, we have also opened a new subject of Physical Education and a Gym Training Centre.

2.5.7 What are the mechanisms for redressal of grievances with reference to evaluation both at the college and University level?

The individual departments look after redressal, if any, regarding evaluation of internal assessments. However, the college has no power to redress any grievances with reference to evaluation at University level. Nevertheless, it is the responsibility of the college when students apply for review or scrutiny, to carry it forward to the University.

2.6. Student performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 Does the college have clearly stated learning outcomes? If 'yes' give details on how the students and staff are made aware of these?

The main objective of the college is to motivate the students, the future citizens of India, towards acquisition of knowledge and skill so that they can go for higher studies as well as for quality jobs. The curriculum prepared by the University and followed by the college definitely fulfils this objective. It is the primary look out of the college authority whether the curriculum is transmitted to the students successfully. It constantly monitors the teaching learning process through different mechanisms like examination, student seminars, debate and quiz contest, creative writings etc. The academic programs are clearly stated at the beginning of each academic session in the college prospectus to make the students and the faculty members well aware of these programs.

Not only that, before the commencement of the new academic year the Principal discusses with the faculty members regarding the academic programs of that particular year in the staff council meeting and notices are served to the students accordingly.

2.6.2 Enumerate on how the institution monitors and communicates the progress and performance of students through the duration of the course/programme? 2.6.3 How are the teaching, learning and assessment strategies of the institution structured to facilitate the achievement of the intended learning outcomes?

As mentioned earlier, teaching learning evaluation process is conducted through class tests, mid-term and pre-final test in order to prepare the students for the final examinations conducted by the parent University. Besides these, the learning and skill development of the students are assessed by the student seminars, held by some departments where the students give short oral presentation on their selected topics; they are also encouraged to take part in debates and quiz which are very much helpful for their mental growth. In our institution there is a practice of assessing the overall teaching learning procedure by the outgoing students. The college authority with the help of the academic subcommittee analyses the data received from the student assessment along with the Head of the departments and thus monitors the teaching learning process.

2.6.4 What are the measures/initiatives taken up by the institution to enhance the social and economic relevance (student placements, entrepreneurship, innovation and research aptitude developed among students etc.) of the courses offered?

The college regularly hosts career counseling, entrepreneurship development programmes for the benefit of the students. Career guidance, call for seminars from esteemed research institutions are walled up in the bulletin board for general awareness and subsequent participation by the students.

2.6.5 How does the institution collect and analyze data on student performance and learning outcomes and use it for planning and overcoming barriers of learning?

The results of the all internal assessments are submitted to the academic sub-committee whose meetings are held regularly. Poor performance is discussed and the concerned students then guided accordingly.

2.6.6 How does the institution monitor and ensure the achievement of learning outcomes?

The institution monitors and ensures the achievement of learning outcome through academic subcommittee. The decisions of the academic subcommittee are further discussed in the Governing Body.

2.6.7 Does the institution and individual teachers use assessment/ evaluation outcomes as an indicator for evaluating student performance, achievement of learning objectives and planning? If 'yes' provide details on the process and cite a few examples.

Any other relevant information regarding Teaching-Learning and Evaluation which the college would like to include.

Planting of trees around the college playground was another step towards eco-friendly and green environment.

7.1.2 What are the initiatives taken by the college to make the campus eco-friendly? Energy conservation

College authority has planned to replace traditional light and fan fittings with modern energy efficient fittings step by step as per guidance of WEBREDA.

 Use of renewable energy

College Authority has communicated with WEBREDA for installation of grid connected solar electricity system

 Water harvesting

College Authority has planned to build a new green building in which at least 70 to 80 thousand liter rainwater could be harvested from the roof of the building itself for use in toilets all the year round. For this the College authority has communicated with Institute of Environmental Studies and Wetland Management, Govt. of West Bengal.

 Check dam construction: Nil Efforts for Carbon neutrality: Nil Plantation

Planting trees and beautification is a regular feature in our NSS program schedule

* Hazardous waste management

Hazardous waste management procedures are followed in disposing of hazardous waste that is generated in the laboratory in order to minimise risks associated with the disposal of laboratory waste. Waste is stored in suitable containers till proper disposal.

* e-waste management

The e-waste generated is stored in the campus and disposed as scrap.

7.2 Innovations

7.2.1 Give details of innovations introduced during the last four years which have created a positive impact on the functioning of the college.

The primary innovation introduced during the last four years was the introduction of the on-line admission process by the authority. This not only helped the students but also avoided unnecessary feuds which often took place when admission forms were issued from the college campus itself. This also helped in maintaining transparency during the admission process.

Student Health Home (SHH) has been revived. Health Awareness Camp with eminent neuro-surgeon Dr. Trishitananda Ray, General Secretary / Director Student's Health Home was held on: 14.12.2013. SHH has sent Doctor's list and medical clinic schedule w.e.f. Jan, 2014 which is displayed in the college premises.

Recently the authority has planned to introduce the system of delivering notices through SMS to the students and the guardians. This ensures that important notices are communicated even when the student is not present in the College for a substantial period.

Every year, during College Test Examinations, feedback forms on infrastructural facilities and the teaching faculty are distributed to the students so that the College authority can reflect on and rectify their decisions for the benefit of the students. The women's cell has worked perseveringly and arranged Health Awareness Program both for female students of the college and women in the nearby locality who would be interested.

7.3 Best Practices

Best Practice I

1. Title of the Practice

The Women's cell of Prabhu Jagatbandhu College is a body comprised of female members from teaching and non-teaching community and female students of the college. The cell is named 'SACHETANI'. Implicit in the name, is the spirit of the cell, i.e., to generate consciousness about one's self, to breed self esteem and sense of worthiness in the mind of a woman—the weaker gender of the society.

2. Goal

The purpose of this cell is to deal with the problems faced by female members of the college (staff as well as students) in different arena of their life. It provides a counseling forum for the female students to tackle those problems on a regular interval. In addition, there are awareness programmes about different preventive measures of such problems. Moreover, it encourages them to build a precious life in their professional as well as personal areas.

3. The Context

This activity involves women from the village who do not have enough education to come forward and address problems related to their daily lives. Moreover, they are not comfortable disclosing different gynecological issues and required serious convincing from the volunteers.

Another important issue is the time constraint. Most of the women are involved in odd jobs which made it difficult for them to reach the college within the stipulated time when the practitioners are present. This is indeed a challenging issue as the program schedule has to be adjusted to accommodate them.

4. The Practice

The practice began with interactive session of the women's cell members-between the female students and female staff of the college regarding the procedures of functioning of the cell with its definite aim in mind. Valuable suggestions were received from all who attended, which had enriched the cell in its future planning process. Dr. Asok Das, Head, Department of Economics of this college, who has successfully completed a Post Graduate Diploma Course in Human Rights from National University of Jurisical Sciences (NUJS), delivered an extempore lecture on Women Rights which was valuable and educative for the students as well as for the staff.

Among important proposals, activity of the cell was initiated with seminars by dynamic resource persons related to the field.

To get maximum success the NSS team of this college was asked to participate with the student members of the women's cell. This collaboration indeed worked in synergism and also gave students an orientation towards survey work. The aim was to arrange a health camp for these villagers.

Finally, organising health camp in the college campus with eminent doctors was the main target of the practice. We intend to carry out several such camps and on a regular basis as this appears to have a tremendous positive impact on the local villagers. Also the NGOs largely appreciated our step towards a noble cause. Among the patients initially the majority was our students and their guardians. We hope to reach out to a greater mass through those who have visited such a camp. The primary limitation in such a venture is the inhibition of the local people to join such a camp. The first hand information from the participants would be more convincing and we hope to get a larger participation in the subsequent camps.

5. Evidence of Success

On 22nd December, 2012 there was an interactive session of the women's cell between the female students and female staff of the college regarding the procedures of functioning of the cell with its definite aim in mind. Around 36 female students all female staff actively participated in the said session.

On 15th January, 2013, the cell organized a seminar-cum-workshop on women's health in which we were obliged to have as speaker a gynecologist from the London Hospital, Dr. Devasree Mitra, who spoke on "A Girl, a Woman, a Mother – The Journey Continues". There was an overwhelming response in participation from the students in the workshop. Dr. Mitra's presentation was remarkable. She provided a number of fine visual aids. The lucid presentation in Bengali coupled with the helpful demonstration came as a very rare event for our girls. They were encouraged by Dr. Mitra's easy going manner to bring up all sorts of questions. It was indeed an experience that will live with our students for years to come.

On 8th and 9th March 2013, the student members of the women's cell in collaboration with the NSS team of this college conducted a survey of female members of a nearby village (Mashila). They collected general information regarding the health problems of the women residing in Mashila. The aim of the survey was to arrange a health camp for these villagers.

In the academic session (2013-2014), a health camp was organized in the college campus on 14th December, 2013 with the proficient assistance of two eminent doctors from Kolkata. We had the privilege to have Dr. Nandita Dasgupta, an eminent doctor, (previously attached with CINI, a NGO and presently working with ailing mother and children), as gynecologist and Dr. Debdwaipayan Chattopadhyay, (Ex-Surgeon Superintendent, SSKM Hospital, Ex-CMOH, Kolkata Municipal Corporation) as General Physician. Both of them advised a total of 72 patients of which 46 had gynecological problem. Among the patients, the majority was our students. As a whole, the camp was a grand success.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required

As mentioned above in the context since the practice involves women from village background, they were not very enterprising and relented only when it was assured that lady practitioners would be present for their checkups.

Although, College authority helps in funding such program, if the fund flow is improved it would enable proper execution of the project.

7. Notes (Optional)

The cell plans to have the following programmes in future:

- 1) Regular counseling session with the female students of the college.
- 2) Women's Health Camp at nearby locality.
- 3) Workshop on Women Rights.
- 4) Seminar/Conference on women atrocities.
- 5) Survey work on Women's participation in various socio-eco-politico-cultural and administrative activities.
- 6) Cultural Programmes focusing on gender discrimination.

Best Practice II

1. Title of the Practice

The second best practice that has been initiated by the college is "Donation of course books to library in the locality"

2. Goal

From the academic perspective, the college tries to uplift the academic environment of the hinterland. So, the college tries to help all students irrespective of the fact that they belong to the college.

3. The Context

The location of the college being in the rural area, there is a certain percentage of students who are needy and would be generally benefitted by such a library. The library by the name of KHUDIRAM STUDY CIRCLE located in Andul is open on Sundays and has a considerable membership including adult learners. So, an impetus to help them is also a motivation for such a practice.

4. The Practice

An appeal is made to all faculties of all departments to donate books of undergraduate courses so that a reasonable collection is made and donated. This is indeed a good practice as every year we do get text books and reference books from a large number of publishers. Also, some of our faculties have donated books from their own account. These are the specimen copies and can be of considerable help to those who do not have access to such books. Not only this, such libraries remain open on Sundays so that one can easily access them.

5. Evidence of Success

In November, 2013, about seventy books from different subjects and courses were donated which were accepted and incorporated in the library collection.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required

During this practice we got a wholesome participation from all our faculties. Our efforts were much appreciated by the library authorities.

7. Notes (Optional)

This best practice would be extended to other such NGO or groups so that we can reach out to a larger section of students.

Strength

- Good Academic results
- Highly qualified faculty who are dedicated to the cause
- The faculty has to its credit a good number of publications.
- Departmental Library with a wide and up to date collection of Books
- Congenial Teacher-student relationship
- A large number of our successful students seek admission to post graduate courses in different Universities of West Bengal in each year
- Our students are very much enthusiastic participating in different programmes on sports, cultural function, social awareness activities, etc.
- Our dept. has a Book Bank for needy student.
- Though department have no systematic record, our pass out students are employed in various schools, colleges and in other field. (A list of student name is attached in Annexure II.)

Weakness

- Large number of students but inadequacy of space poses a problem.
- Insufficient Teaching faculty is another weakness of our department.

Opportunity

- There is a wide scope of Higher studies
- Several job opportunities in related fields like journalism, social studies etc.

Challenges

Though students of the department come with good academic record, most of them are from economically poor families, so they discontinue their studies for various family problems and diseases. It is our challenge to taking various steps such as establishing good teacher-student relation with our student; arrange special classes for backward students etc, so that they realize that they have to work hard if they want to build good academic career and department is always with them for solving their problem.

Strength

The department has a practical laboratory which includes different instruments and microscopes.

Weakness

As there is no sanctioned post for teacher, minimum students are getting admitted. Therefore, the numbers of students are few.

Opportunity

Botany, as a discipline, provides a lot of opportunities to its students. Application of Botany in various fields like medicine, agriculture, food products, bio-fertilizer, pathology, bio-technology gives it a good prospect

Challenges

To motivate more students towards this subject, in spite of faculty shortage.

22. Student projects:

As per C.U. syllabus, students of B.Com Part-III(Hons.) do their project work under the guidance of departmental teachers. Department of Commerce conducts the project work for a period of one year for 3rd year (Hons.) students, following the course curriculum of University of Calcutta. The departmental teachers endeavour to provide students a guideline and training to understand research problems during this period, at the end of which they are evaluated by the external faculty members appointed by the university. Our teachers take individual care to give a true flavour of research to our students at this level, motivating them to pursue their career in academic field. This enhances the interests of students towards the subject and helps in developing a research oriented outlook. Students are also trained to write proper research proposal, questionnaires for primary data collections and statistical techniques for analyzing the data. Overall, this programme enriches the students' research aptitude, enlightens them with knowledge, proficiency and experience that they would need in near future to continue in this field.

a) Percentage of students who have done in-house projects including inter departmental/ programme: 100% as the project paper is included in B.Com. Part-III (Hons.) syllabus as per C.U.

35. SWOC analysis of the department and Future plans

Strength

The Department of Commerce has 2 qualified and very active full time teachers. Part time teachers (No.2) are also very co-operative. Our students are very sincere and disciplined. They maintain good relation with departmental teachers. Our institution provides large class rooms equipped with sufficient number of lights and fans. Students also get drinking water just outside their classes. In addition to Central Library and Book bank we provide sufficient number of specimen copies to our students through Departmental library.

Weakness

The student-teacher ratio is very high. Insufficient number of teachers is a great problem to the department. Moreover, it becomes difficult to guide (at least 7 students per teacher) the Part-III (Hons.) students for project paper as per C.U. new syllabus. Moreover, most of our students come from poor family and Bengali medium which acts as a hindrance to achieve their goals.

Opportunity

Study of Commerce means to create life blood of any Industry/Institution/Organization for their Accounting and Finance department. Without finance no industry/institution/organization can exist. So opportunity of Commerce study has a huge scope in the job markets.

Challenges

Nowadays many students are opting for BBA instead of B.Com. Under new syllabus of C.U., number of students getting 1st class is reducing. So it is a great challenge for the organization to update the infrastructure and strengthen educational assistance for the students to improve their results with reduced number of faculties.

Challenges:

- Dept. lacks sufficient number of permanent faculties.
- Dept. lacks technical assistant, so taking practical classes or conducting university
- practical examinations often become a challenge.
- Recently there is a tendency of students going towards various engineering courses. Therefore, it becomes a challenge to the Dept. to attract students and make them aware regarding the prospects of the course offered here.
- Dept. is determined to conduct seminar/workshop in near future.

 4. Students' seminars are arranged on the topics from the prescribed syllabus.
 5. Debates and quiz competition are organized to generate awareness among students.
34. Participation in Institutional Social Responsibility (ISR) and Extension activities:
 - The Department of Geography focuses on the Institutional Responsibility by incorporating social and environmental responsibility, ethics (values) and sustainability through the students.
 - Social responsibility is one of the mainstays that support our academic work, and it is also one of our priorities, because we believe that our role involves something more than simply the imparting of knowledge and skills to our students and, as active agents of social change, we aim to address and find solutions to social problems.
 - The students of this department are actively involved in the extension activities carried out by our college, i.e., NSS and NCC.
 - Further, for partial fulfillment of B.A./ B.Sc Hons. and General (of the University of Calcutta), field surveys are conducted with the students which afford prospects for unraveling an unknown environment. Such survey works enlighten the students about societal life, geographical regions, and sustainability of physical and human environment.
 - Hence, an overall sense of values and responsibility towards society is developed through such exercises which are successfully carried out by our students.

35. SWOC analysis of the department and Future plansStrength

- The quality faculty represented by the academic expertise of the teachers along with their commendable teaching aptitude.
- Two teachers with excellent expertise in GIS & Remote Sensing which is far more than beneficial for students.
- The sincere, laborious and obedient students who, in spite of their various obstacles, endeavor their level best for their academic pursuits.
- The excellent network of inter-relationship between students and teachers.
- The available infrastructures of the department are satisfactory.

Weakness

- The scarcity of class-rooms.: the classrooms are scarce in numbers and the sizes of the existing classrooms are small with respect to increasing number of students.

Opportunity

The students of this department have a scope of employment in various multi-disciplinary fields, in addition to teaching and academic pursuits. Those are as follows:

- Jobs relating to GIS and Remote Sensing
- Employment opportunities in the fields of Census Organization as cartographer and data analyst
- In sectors of regional planning
- In Survey of India
- In National Bureau of Soil Sciences
- In land-use mapping
- In Archaeology
- In National Atlas and Thematic Mapping Organization

Challenges:

- To improve and upgrade the academic quality of the students coming from rural and backward hinterland.
- To commence post-graduate course in the department of Geography.
- To equip the department for carrying out research projects (sponsored by UGC, DST, ICSSR) relating to various geographical and environmental problems.
- To enhance the employability of the students.

Future Plans:

1. To increase the area of the department.
2. To increase the number of laboratories.
3. To initiate diploma course in GIS & Remote Sensing in collaboration with National Atlas and Thematic Mapping Organization and CAD Centre, Jadavpur University. This might accentuate the employment opportunities of the students in Government and Non-Government Sectors

32. Details on student enrichment programmes (special lectures / workshops / seminar) with external experts: None

33. Teaching methods adopted to improve student learning:

Our college offers only UG program. Besides usual class teaching such as chalk and talk with detail board work, we supply different problems to enhance their capability of solving problems. We sometimes give power point presentation to illustrate some topics graphically and lucidly. We emphasize on interactive learning through different questions and discussions within or outside the classroom.

34. Participation in Institutional Social Responsibility (ISR) and Extension activities: College has a NSS unit. Accordingly our students participate and involve in different social activities through NSS unit.

35. SWOC analysis of the department and Future plans:

Strength

- Separate Numerical lab with internet facility.
- Departmental Library with a good number of books.
- Faculty from both the fields Pure and Applied mathematics.
- Students are obedient and very keen to learn.

Weakness

- Lack of full time teachers.
- Majority of our students come from neighboring rural places with economically weak background this often leads to discontinuation of studies
- Space problem in Numerical lab.

Opportunity

- Being a basic subject in science, there is much demand for this subject in the academic profession
- Students from this department other than pursuing Post Graduation Courses in Mathematics, can join many professional courses e.g., IT sector, Diploma in statistical Data Analysis, B.Tech in Computer Sciences, Instrumentation and Electronics, Instrumentation and communication and Management in Business Administration which lead to a good job.

Challenges

- Our students are ordinary in merit and admitted to this course with an average marks.
- In most cases, students are first generation who are studying graduation course. They do not have an aptitude for science and hence this comes as a challenge to the faculty to motivate them.

Future plans

- Conduct seminar, workshop and Conferences.
- Increase number of computers in lab.
- Upgradation of existing infrastructure.

30. Details of Infrastructural facilities

a) Library: Our Department has small library of its own. It contains 179 volumes, mostly related to the curriculum providing ready reference during both the classroom teaching and later interactive sessions. Thus the student's accessibility, borrowing limits and, faculty interactions are greatly enhanced. Moreover, we supplement the library with Science Reporter, a monthly magazine

b) Internet facilities for Staff & Students: Department has one Pentium IV based computer with unlimited internet facility for its Staff and Students.

c) Class rooms with ICT facility: Though Department does not have class room with ICT, it has 4 computers at its students disposal for regular course work. Both the Honours and General courses have computer programming in the syllabus. We have acquired the 'Hyper Physics' CD which encapsulates the syllabus in a very convenient form.

d) Laboratories: Our department offers both its General and Honours students, well-maintained laboratories with all the essential amenities. It consists of a 1240sq.ft main lab, 460sq.ft. Honours lab, 3 optical labs and a 140 sq.ft. Computer lab.

31. Number of students receiving financial assistance from college, university, government or other agencies in 2012- 2013: 3 full-free studentship from college.

32. Details on student enrichment programmes (special lectures/ workshops/ seminar) with external experts:

To commensurate the greatest global achievement in the field of Science and Technology, i.e. confirmation of existence of Higgs Boson at Large Hadron Collider, Geneva we conducted a day-long seminar on Sept. 11, 2012. The title of the seminar was "Ishwar Kana – Brahmander Utso Sandhane". We were honoured to have two eminent speakers to deliver talks on Higgs boson and Large Hadron Collider. Prof. Dr. Dipak Ghosh, Emeritus Professor of Jadavpur University, well-renowned for his lucidity in the realm of High Energy Physics and Dr. Premomoy Ghosh, Senior Scientist, VECC, Kolkata who has worked at LHC, Geneva. Not only our students and staff, but students and teachers of eight schools of our locality attended the seminar.

33. Teaching methods adopted to improve student learning:

The mother tongue of the students is Bengali- however for higher studies this is a setback. This causes extreme difficulty and confusion in the classroom for students and teachers alike. Thus in first couple of months we adept to teach in Bengali using English terminologies, and then we gradually switch over to English, so that they can follow text books and ultimately write their exam in English. Moreover as our students are not so strong academically, they need slower rate of teaching than that is prescribed by the university. We comply with them and provide extra classes for their benefit, both in theory and practical.

34. Participation in Institutional Social Responsibility (ISR) and Extension activities

Department always encourages its student to be socially responsible within the Institution and also outside it through designated NSS programs taken up by the College. They are made responsible for cleanliness of their classrooms and laboratories. They are encouraged and taught to maintain the discipline within the college. They are also taught to handle the laboratory instruments and library books with care. Through such practices, it is hoped that our future generation will be responsible for public properties of our country.

35. SWOC analysis of the department and Future plans

Strength

Our students come from an economically weak background we find them to be hard working and obedient. This is very encouraging to the sincere technical staff and our faculty. Our teachers have strong academic background and are dedicated to the well being of the students and the reputation of the College. The founders of PJC were idealistic visionaries. Hence, the basic infrastructure of the physics lab – space, furniture and design- is comparable to the best institutions around here. The current equipment, though not fully adequate for the future needs, are well maintained by the caring staff and faculty.

Weakness

The rural setting from which our students come does not provide them with solid foundation for higher study. Usually they do not find a good academic environment in the family and their schooling is often very inadequate. The location of our college coupled with insufficient Government funding is responsible for severe shortage of permanent faculty and staff. It is also critical in preventing us from obtaining the equipment that are needed as per the current syllabus.

Opportunity

Hence it is clear that opportunities for our graduates are limited. It is still a matter of pride that some of our students have pursued higher studies like M.Sc. and MCA and found gainful employment in schools, IT industry, Bank, etc.

Challenges

Our challenge is to enrich our students with quality education to help them overcome the cycle of poverty and discrimination and live with quiet dignity as a worthy citizen of India.

Future plans

In the coming year Department will endeavour to procure much needed equipment for its lab, and more books for its departmental library and more internet connections to its all existing computers for its students. We have also plans to have sessions once a month where our students and teachers may exchange their views on current traits of Physics.

32. Details on student enrichment programmes (special lectures/ workshops/ seminar) with external experts: Every year, Department organizes a Seminar on “Nabi Dibas”. Remedial class and special lecturers are also provided by the Dept.
33. Teaching methods adopted to improve student learning: Educational Excursion, Use of Internet, Slide show, Political Journal etc.
34. Participation in Institutional Social Responsibility (ISR) and Extension activities: The Teachers of the Department always encourage the students to perform social work and make them conscious about the social evils like illiteracy, corruptions, superstitions etc and eradicate those evils. The maximum students of our dept. serve social responsibility through N.S.S.
35. SWOC analysis of the department and Future plans:

Strength

- Teachers of the department are updated with the latest political developments, problems and publish articles in this regard in different magazines. Teachers are engaged in various activities and programmes of the department which are beneficial to the students.
- Good teacher-student relationship ensures future orientation of the students.
- The students are very much enthusiastic to participating in debates, group discussion, cultural activities etc. It is for them the Department is able to publish its own Magazine “ATTIHCK”. To mention here also the HOD is the editor of the Magazine published by the Teachers’ Council named as “DIGANTA”.

Weaknesses

- Since the students come from rural background, many of them belong to below poverty line. They engage themselves in different types of work to support their family financially whereby they suffer academically.

- Faculty position lying vacant for a long time.
- Lack of job opportunity in this subject.

Opportunity

Many of our students are engaged in media, survey works and NGOs. The need of the day is sound theoretical knowledge in politics to become educated politicians and good administrators thereafter.

Challenges

The students are coming to college with high score in their H.S. exam. Though it looks encouraging but within a few days we find that they are seriously lacking on various basic issues. Gradually some of them become psychologically affected which damage their confidence while encountering the demanding reality of Hons. course so our challenge is to instill in them love for the subject. We must make them realize that they have to work hard if they want to build good academic career.
